Weekly Schedule

* There are Break and Lunch time between the sessions

Time	Session	Description
9:00 am - 10:15 am	Input Session #1: Classroom Management	Every day there are input sessions that cover a range of topics dealing with learner needs, language, skills, teaching techniques, planning, and professional development.
10:30 am - 12:30 pm	Input Session #2: Teaching Reading
12:45 pm - 1:30 pm	Teaching Practice Preparation	This time is devoted to providing you support for your upcoming lessons. There is one trainer for a maximum of six candidates to ensure ample time for individualized support. As the course progresses, you will learn to become more autonomous and to plan more independently, just like in the real teaching world!
1:30 pm - 3:30 pm	Teaching Practice	Teaching Practice is held every day. You will work together with other trainees to teach groups of ESL students. Each candidate teaches a minimum of eight lessons with a minimum of 6 hours over the four weeks. These lessons will be observed by one of the trainers.
3:45 pm - 4:30 pm	Feedback	With your peers and tutor, this session is a chance to discuss the lessons, build upon the strengths, and look at areas for improvement and possible ideas for doing so.
3:45 pm - 4:30 pm	Wrap-up	30 minutes at the end of day for any final questions, course admin, or anything else that needs to be discussed, including providing you support for your upcoming lessons. You might even get out early from time to time!
